Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-15 and 38-71, drawn to a water treatment system, classified in class 210, subclass 192.
- II. Claims 16-37, drawn to an apparatus for producing sulfurous acid, classified in class 442, subclass 160.
- III. Claim 72, drawn to a method for treating water in a primary water treatment station, classified in class 210, subclass 743.

Inventions I and II are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the hydraulic air inlet shut-off valve safety system. The subcombination has separate utility such as for producing concentrated sulfurous acid in a bleaching process.

Inventions III and I together with II are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case the apparatuses could be used to carry out other materially different processes, for example, group I could be used to carry out a process for controlling the flow of water through the sulfurous acid generator by measuring the chlorine content of the water, and group II could be used to carry out a process for producing concentrated sulfurous acid in a bleaching process.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Species of control systems for controlling water flow through the sulfurous acid generator:

Species	Claims
C1	4, 40, 72
C2	5, 41, 72
C3	6, 42
C4	7
C5	8, 9, 43, 44
C6	10, 45
C7	11, 46

Species of negative pressure sources:

Species	claims
P1	24, 58
P2	25, 59
P3	26-28, 60-62

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect one of species C1-C7 and one of species P1-P3 for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claims 1-3, 12-23, 29-39, 47-57, 63-71 are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
